Lisa Mabie is a Senior Editor with Van Dermymden Makus Law Corporation. She earned her Bachelors of Arts degree from UC Davis with a minor in writing. Prior to joining the Firm, Lisa worked in various positions, including a freelance writer, a library assistant, and a product content writer for a local workwear company.

Fiction, both writing and reading, has always been a love of Lisa's. It was in college when she discovered an affinity for non-fiction as well, and was published in the 2010 edition of UC Davis' Prized Writing. In her spare time, she enjoys writing, traveling, and reading through her giant stack of books that never seems to shrink.
